Professional Rating Contest PADI Americas & PADI Canada

HOW TO ENTER

Entrants must attain at least one new professional level credential through PADI; i.e. Divemaster, Assistant Instructor, Emergency First Response Instructor, PADI Specialty Instructor, etc. ("Member Credentials"). Qualifying Member Credentials must have certification dates from 1 January 2008 through 31 December 2008. All applications for Member Credentials must be accurate and complete, including all signatures and required documents. Applications that do not meet these criteria will not qualify for the Contest. Applications for Member Credentials must be received and processed by PADI by 31 January 2009 to be eligible. Credentials receive "Affiliated Points" based on the level of the Member Credential (see list).

Entrants can also earn "Bonus Points" based on total student certifications/participant registrations (see list). For example, entrants will earn 10 points for 25-49 certifications, whether the certifications are Open Water Diver, Divemaster, OWSI, etc. These "Qualifying Student Certifications" must reflect certification dates from 1 January 2008 through 31 December 2008. All Qualifying Student Certifications must be accurate and complete, including all signatures and required documentation. Qualifying Student Certifications that do not meet these criteria will not qualify for the contest and will not result in Bonus Points being provided to entrant. Qualifying Student Certifications must be received and processed by PADI by 31 January 2009. Entrant will receive Bonus Points based on maximum total Qualifying Student Certifications for 2008; for example, an entrant issuing 57 Qualifying Student Certifications in 2008 will receive 15 Bonus Points.

Entrants will accumulate points (Affiliated Points and Bonus Points) regardless of where they complete their professional-level training, at what PADI Office the Member Credential(s) is processed, or at what PADI Office the Qualifying Student Certification(s) is processed. If two or more PADI Members in PADI Americas/PADI Canada achieve the same number of points based on Member Credentials and Qualifying Student Certifications, the total number of PADI certifications issued by each entrant in 2008 will be the deciding factor. The final decision is at the sole discretion of PADI. Regional contest eligibility will be determined by the Contest Rules of the PADI Office with which the PADI Member is affiliated (Home Office) on 31 January 2009.
